

NOTICE OF CHILD SUPPORT SERVICES PROGRAM

DCSS 0064 (02/10/10)

WHAT CHILD SUPPORT CAN DO FOR YOU:

All children have the right to be supported by both parents. Any person, including a noncustodial parent, whether or not he or she receives public assistance, can apply for support services. Some of the services available are:

- locating the parent(s) for child support enforcement purposes;
- establishing paternity (legal fatherhood);
- establishing a child and/or medical support (health insurance) order;
- enforcing a child and/or medical support order;
- changing an existing court order for child and/or medical support;
- enforcing a spousal support order with a child support order;
- collecting and distributing support payments.

CUSTODY AND VISITATION SERVICES ARE NOT PROVIDED.

THE LOCAL CHILD SUPPORT AGENCY PROVIDES SERVICES ON BEHALF OF THE COUNTY. THE LOCAL CHILD SUPPORT AGENCY DOES NOT REPRESENT YOU AND IS NOT YOUR ATTORNEY. BECAUSE YOU ARE NOT ITS CLIENT, THE LOCAL CHILD SUPPORT AGENCY MAY PROVIDE ENFORCEMENT SERVICES TO YOU OR THE OTHER PARENT IN THE FUTURE, AND THE INFORMATION YOU PROVIDE IS NOT PRIVILEGED OR KEPT CONFIDENTIAL UNDER ATTORNEY-CLIENT PRIVILEGE.

COOPERATION WITH CHILD SUPPORT

When you request services, you must cooperate with the local child support agency by providing any information or documents needed to establish paternity and/or locate the other parent and to get support payments for your child. Once you request services of the local child support agency, the local child support agency will determine the appropriate actions to take. All support payments must be made to the State Disbursement Unit. If payments are made directly to you, these payments must be turned over to the State Disbursement Unit.

When you apply for, or receive support services, you are responsible for promptly informing the child support agency of any changes that could affect your child support case or the work of the local child support agency. Some examples are:

- child leaves your home;
- telephone number or address changes (including a move to another county, state, or country);
- stopping public assistance, such as California Work Opportunity and Responsibility to Kids (CalWORKs);
- name change;
- initiation of divorce or other legal proceedings involving your child;
- information regarding the other party;
- direct receipt of any child, spousal or family support payment.

Pursuant to Title 45, Code of Federal Regulations, Section 303.3, for all cases referred to a local child support agency or where an application for services has been received, the agency must attempt to locate all noncustodial parents or sources of income and/or assets when necessary for the next appropriate action. When applicable and appropriate, to your case(s), the local child support agency will seek to obtain verification of Social Security Administration information through a data matching process.

YOUR RIGHTS

You have the right to seek legal advice from a private attorney or legal services office at your own expense. If you hire an attorney, you must tell the local child support agency. For free information and/or legal assistance, you may contact the Superior Court's Office of the Family Law Facilitator. Free or reduced cost legal services may also be available at your legal services office.

If you have a support order in the State of California, you may ask the local child support agency to review your support order to determine if the amount of support should be changed based on statewide guidelines. If the amount of support does not meet guidelines for change, the local child support agency must give you or the other parent, upon request, information on how to get the forms to request the court to change the amount of support ordered. The Family Law Facilitator can also help free of charge. The local child support agency must tell you of the date, time, and purpose of every hearing for paternity or support. You have the right to read the court file, unless that information is legally prohibited by confidentiality requirements.

Upon your request, the local child support agency may give you copies of the most recent order entered in your case file. You can go to court to enforce your support order, but you must give the local child support agency advance notice that you intend to file your own enforcement action. If the local child support agency does not respond to your notice within thirty (30) days or if the local child support agency tells you that you can proceed, you can then file your own enforcement action with the Superior Court as long as all support is payable through the local child support agency.

The local child support agency must have the permission of a non-public assistance recipient before filing a stipulation affecting the support order in which that person is named as a party. The local child support agency cannot, without a public assistance recipient's consent, enter into a stipulation that will decrease the amount of overdue support when the recipient is owed overdue support that is more than the amount of public assistance paid to the recipient.

If you are not receiving public assistance, the payments the State receives are applied in the following order:

1. Current monthly support;
2. Interest;
3. Past due support; and
4. Future obligations.

Federal income tax refunds owed to the noncustodial parent can be intercepted by the child support agency, and are applied differently than other payments. By federal law, this money cannot be applied to current support obligations. It must be applied to the past due child support. If a custodial party has received public assistance, including Medi-Cal, the past due child support owed to the government will be paid first.

All case types that are eligible for Federal income tax refund offset are eligible for administrative offset. The following types of payments are available for administrative offset. They include both recurring and nonrecurring payments. Recurring payments are payments that are issued on a regular, routine, or repeated basis. A nonrecurring payment is issued once and not expected to be repeated, such as a lump-sum retirement payment.

The Federal payments currently included in administrative offset are: Federal retirement payments, vendor, and miscellaneous payments (i.e., expense reimbursement payments and travel payments).

Administrative Offset and Federal Tax Refund Offset are allowed by 31 United States Code Section 3716, 42 United States Code Section 664, 26 United States Code Section 6402, and 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 303.72.

State income tax refunds and lottery awards owed to the noncustodial parent can also be intercepted by the child support agency and are applied according to the Child Support Program distribution regulations (Manual of Policy and Procedures, Sections 12-415 and 12-420). Franchise Tax Board intercept and lottery award collections are applied to all current support and then to past due child support, including past due medical support.

In accordance with the Federal Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 the Department of Child Support Services may assess a $25 Annual Service Fee for each case that has never received public assistance. This fee will be assessed every year on October 1st for each case in which at least $500 has been disbursed to the family in the prior Federal Fiscal Year, (October 1st - September 30th). The fee will be automatically deducted from the next payment(s) issued to the custodial party after October 1st until the fee has been recovered in full.

ADDITIONALLY, SOME OTHER STATES CHARGE A FEE FOR SERVICES. IF YOUR CASE INVOLVES ONE OF THOSE STATES, THEY MAY DEDUCT THE FEE FROM THE SUPPORT PAYMENTS, OR ADD IT TO THE BALANCE THAT IS OWED.

NOTICE OF COLLECTIONS AND DISTRIBUTION

Custodial Party will get a Notice of Collections and Distribution of support payments every month. The Notice will show all support that was collected and paid out during the period shown on the Notice, and if that money was applied to current support, or past due support. A Notice of Collections and Distribution will not be sent in any month that no support was received or paid out.

MEDICAL SUPPORT AND MEDI-CAL

Either or both parents can be required to provide health insurance if health insurance is available at a reasonable cost. In general, the cost of health insurance is reasonable if it is employment-related group health insurance or other group health insurance. However, in determining reasonable cost, the court will also consider the actual cost of the health insurance to the parent(s).

The local child support agency will ask the court to establish or change a child support order to require the parent(s) to provide health insurance if it is available at a reasonable cost. The custodial parent may also request that the local child support agency change the child support order to include a provision for health insurance. This may affect the amount of the monthly child support obligation. If the noncustodial parent is ordered to provide health insurance coverage, the local child support agency will contact the noncustodial parent and his or her employer, if necessary, to secure health insurance for the child. After the local child support agency receives the policy information, the information will be given to the custodial parent.

Having private health insurance coverage does not prevent the Custodial Party from having Medi-Cal coverage. If the Custodial Party receives Medi-Cal and has individual or group health private coverage (including dental or vision coverage), the Custodial Party is required by federal and state law to tell the county welfare department (CWD), the health care provider, and the child support agency. Failure to provide this information is a misdemeanor. The Custodial Party must report to the CalWORKs eligibility worker and/or child support agency within ten (10) days when private health coverage changes or stops. The Custodial Party must also tell the CalWORKs eligibility worker and/or child support agency about any court order regarding health insurance.

If the Custodial Party is only receiving Medi-Cal, the Custodial Party must cooperate in establishing paternity and obtaining medical support as a condition of continued eligibility for Medi-Cal benefits, unless the Custodial Party has filed and the CWD has approved a claim of "good cause" (WA 51) for not cooperating. Your child(ren) will still be eligible for Medi-Cal. Also, all child support services will be given, unless the Custodial Party tells the local child support agency that he or she does not want services that are unrelated to obtaining medical support and establishing paternity. Obtaining medical support may reduce the amount of the child support received. In cases where both parents are in the home, the local child support agency will establish paternity only.

Under Federal law [42 U.S.C. Section 1396(a) (25)], health insurance belonging to a Medi-Cal recipient in a child or medical support enforcement case is used as follows:

The service provider will bill Medi-Cal. Medi-Cal will pay the service provider. Then Medi-Cal will seek repayment from the other health insurance coverage. You are not responsible for any insurance cost-sharing amount (co-insurance, co-payment or deductible) unless a Medi-Cal co-payment or share of cost must be met. The provider may bill you for the service if you do not cooperate in identifying your private health insurance. If your other health insurance is a Prepaid Health Plan (PHP) or a Health Maintenance Organization (HMO), you must use the plan facilities for regular medical care. Except for out-of-area service or emergency care, Medi-Cal will not pay for services provided by a provider not associated with your PHP/HMO. Out-of-area services or emergency care should be billed to the PHP/HMO.

CHILD SUPPORT HANDBOOK*

NONDISCRIMINATION STATEMENT

It is the policy of the State of California to ensure that all individuals are treated equally and that no person shall, on the basis of ethnic group identification, race, color, national origin, political affiliation or belief, religion, sex, age or disability be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of any program or service, or otherwise be subjected to treatment that is different than that provided to others.

Each local child support agency has a designated Civil Rights Coordinator. Any applicant/recipient who feels they have been subjected to discriminatory treatment may file a complaint of discrimination by first contacting the local child support agency's designated Civil Rights Coordinator through the State Customer Service Support Center (CSSC) or by writing to the California Department of Child Support Services, Attn: Human Services Section, Civil Rights Office, P.O. Box 419064, Rancho Cordova, CA 95741-9064 or call (866) 901-3212.

FACTS ABOUT CUSTODIAL PARTY OR GUARDIAN AND CHILD(REN)

This section is about the person or party who has primary custody of the child(ren). Please complete the entire section. If you are the custodial party, be sure to give us a telephone number where you may be reached during the day.

If the children named in the application have different noncustodial parents, a separate application must be completed for each noncustodial parent. If you need additional space for any section, attach a separate sheet of paper or use the Comment Section provided at the end of the first page.

Please list all the child(ren) of the parents named for whom support services are being requested. Complete the full name of each child, including first name, middle name, last name, and suffix (Jr., Sr., III, etc.)

There are several questions within this section related to determining the biological father of the child(ren) named in the application. One question asks whether a Declaration of Paternity has been signed. The Declaration of Paternity is a legal form that, when signed (usually at the hospital or clinic) by both parents, says the man is the legal father. Signing the form and submitting it to the Department of Child Support Services legally establishes the man as the child's father without having to go to court.

A second question asks whether a Paternity Judgment has been established. A Paternity Judgment is an order from the court that, through the legal process, determines the biological father of the child(ren). Determining the biological father is necessary before child support can be ordered by the court.

Comments: You may use this section as extra space, if needed, or add any additional information you think might help us establish or enforce an order for the child(ren). You may include information about the other person's temper, whether they own rifles or handguns, if they have made threats against you or the child(ren), etc.

FACTS ABOUT NONCUSTODIAL PARENT

If you are the Custodial Party, this section may require you to look through old papers to find some of the information requested. The more information we have in this section the better and faster we will be able to serve you.

If at all possible, please provide the noncustodial parent's Social Security Number or numbers. If you do not know the exact date of birth, provide the approximate age.

Please provide any and all financial information about the noncustodial parent. Attach additional page(s) as needed or use the Comment Section on the first page.

If you are the noncustodial party, be sure to give us a telephone number where you may be reached during the day.

REQUEST FOR SUPPORT SERVICES

DCSS 0055 (02/02/10)

CSE Case Number:

INSTRUCTIONS: Read carefully before signing below. Your signature is required in order for us to open a case for you.

In accordance with the Federal Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 the Department of Child Support Services may assess a $25 Annual Service Fee for each case that has never received public assistance. This fee will be assessed every year on October 1st for each case in which at least $500 has been disbursed to the family in the prior Federal Fiscal Year, (October 1st - September 30th). The fee will be automatically deducted from the next payment(s) issued to the custodial party after October 1st until the fee has been recovered in full.

I want the local child support agency to help me get a child support order to establish paternity for the child(ren) or enforce a support order I have.

I understand that I am applying for these services under the Child Support Services Program under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

I will let the child support agency know right away:

- When each child marries.
- When each child reaches age 19 years or when child reaches 18 years and is not a full-time student whichever happens first.
- If my home address, mailing address, or telephone number changes.
- If my employer, including name, address, and telephone number changes.
- If my income changes.
- If my status, cost, availability of health insurance coverage changes.
- If any information regarding the whereabouts of the other parent(s) changes.
- If the parent(s) moves back in together with the children, or
- If there is any change in custody, childcare, or visitation.

I am aware that the local child support agency does not represent me, the other parent, or the children who are the subject of this case. No attorney-client relationship exists between the local child support agency and me, the other parent, or the children. No attorney-client relationship will arise if the local child support agency provides the support services I have requested.

Dear Applicant:

The Department of Child Support Services (DCSS) is required by law to send child support case information to the federal government. The federal government maintains a data base that includes all child support cases in the country. Upon request, the federal government will release case information to other child support agencies; however, if you or the child(ren) in this case are the victim of family violence, you may not want the release of your case information.

If you think that releasing information about your case to the federal government may cause physical or emotional harm to you or the child(ren) in this case, please fill out the Family Violence Questionnaire (DCSS 0048) and return it to your local child support agency. You must fill out the form completely in order to process your request.

Please mail the completed form to: Local Child Support Agency

For interstate cases personal identification must be disclosed unless a nondisclosure order has been filed. If you have informed us that you have obtained a protective or restraining order or been granted good cause exception from cooperation, the local child support agency shall seek an "order of nondisclosure" prior to sending an interstate application to the other state. A nondisclosure order will prevent the release of your personal information to the other parties involved in your interstate case.

If you feel the release of your address or other personal information would pose a risk to you or your child(ren)'s health, safety or liberty and do not possess a protective or restraining order or have good cause exception, you may seek your own order of nondisclosure. This can be obtained through your own legal counsel or with the assistance of the family law facilitator.

If you or the child(ren) in this case are not a victim of family violence, you do not have to return this form. Also, it is important to understand that DCSS is prohibited by law from releasing your personal information in this case to the other party without a court order. However, some documents that include some of your personal information may be filed with the court.

If you have any questions, please visit CustomerConnect on the web, www.childsup-connect.ca.gov for assistance on-line, or call CustomerConnect at 1-866-901-3212. Persons with hearing or speech impairments, please call the TTY number 1-866-399-4096.

DECLARATION OF SUPPORT PAYMENT HISTORY

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE DECLARATION OF SUPPORT PAYMENT HISTORY

The reverse of this page is your declaration of the support payment history for your case. You are asked to complete a month-by-month, year-by-year breakdown of the amounts of support that were due (ordered by the court) and the amount of each payment that was made. These figures will help determine the amount of the past due support owed, if any.

You must complete a separate page (or pages) for child support, spousal support, family support, medical support, unreimbursed medical expenses, and other types of support not listed. DO NOT combine child support and spousal support unless your court order combines the two support payments into a "family" support order.

In the Amount Ordered column, fill in the amount of support that became due each month since your court order began. If there has been a change in your court order, make sure each month reflects the correct amount of support due.

In the Amount Paid column, indicate the dollar amount of support paid in that month. If more than one payment was made in a given month, put the total dollar amount of support paid. Put the dollar amounts next to the month in which the payment was actually made, and not the month or months which those payments were intended to cover. You may attach additional sheets as necessary.

Be aware that this declaration is not confidential and may be given to the other parent in your case for review. If there is a disagreement regarding the payment history, the parties may be required to present proof of payments in the form of cancelled checks, or receipts, etc.

Complete this Declaration neatly and correctly to make sure there is no mistake nor confusion as to the amounts of the past due support owed, if any.
